We've Moved!

New Address, Same Phone and Email

GBAHC is happily settling into our new home -- larger, brighter, contemporary office space in the recently redeveloped Railway Express Building at 1501 Saint Paul Street, Suite 111. We share the new space with AHC Management LLC, which provides property management for Barclay Greenmount Apartments and future GBAHC projects. Stop by and see our new digs!

Barclay Greenmount Children Visit Art Museum

Summer Program Offers Enriching Field Trips for Neighborhood Youth

On Thursday, July 17th, 17 children participating in the summer food program at GBAHC's Barclay Greenmount Apartments, along with some of their parents, enjoyed an outing to Baltimore's American Visionary Art Museum. "Mr. Pete" of L&B Transport provided the transportation, and free admission was sponsored by Westnorth Studios, Load of Fun, and the Station North Arts and Entertainment District.

Several children in the group are currently take part in a summer chess program, so one highlight of the trip was a life-sized chess set exhibit. This week, another fun field trip is planned to visit the gallery at the Westnorth Studio.

Spotlight: Meet the GBAHC Board

Brenda Harney, Board Member: Brenda, a Baltimore native with strong family ties, works as a Property Manager for the State Employees Credit Union. A longtime community activist, Brenda previously served as a Board Member for the Department of Social Services in Baltimore County.

In addition to her support for GBAHC, Brenda is Director of the Southwest Leadership Team. The team works with residents of the southwest side of Baltimore County to improve the quality of life in their communities.

Look for more GBAHC Board bios in upcoming editions.
