

AHC INC.

Board Members, 2016–2017

David Barsky* is a partner with Krooth and Altman LLP in Washington DC where he specializes in FHA-insured multifamily housing and healthcare mortgage loan transactions. David received his bachelor's and law degrees from George Washington University. A native of New Jersey, he and his wife have lived in Arlington since 1986.

Gladis Bourdouane+ is the Communications Coordinator for the Arlington Public Schools. She has lived in Arlington for over 30 years, and she and her husband have three children. Ms. Bourdouane is a member of the National School Public Relations Association and a graduate of Leadership Arlington's Signature Program Class of 2011.

Robert Bushkoff is a real estate developer with the Dittmar Company in Vienna, VA. A resident of Arlington since 1980, he is a past president of the Arlington Host Lions Club; a member of the Arlington Economic Development Commission; the Arlington Chamber of Commerce; and the Leadership Arlington Class of 2007.

Jacqueline Coachman was born and raised in Arlington. She is currently a program specialist for Youth Services with the City of Alexandria. She is a member of the Scholarship Committee for Tomorrow's Black Men; the Nauck Civic Association; and the Macedonia Baptist Church. She also serves as the neighborhood historian for the Nauck community.

Jason Dalley* works in land acquisition for the national home builder NVR. He is on the finance committee of Bonder and Amanda Johnson Community Development Corporation and also on the Board of Directors of the Northern Virginia Building Association. A graduate of the U.S. Naval Academy, he has been an Arlington resident since 2004.

C.C. Jenkins is a retired member of the U.S. Capitol Police Force. An Arlington resident since 1980, he is President of U.S. Capitol Police Retired Officers' Association; a Board member of the Congressional Federal Credit Union; President of Our Lady Queen of Peace Arlington Credit Union; and a Board Member of the Nauck Community Development Corp.

Tom Klanderma is a partner at Morgan Lewis & Bockius LLP in Washington, DC, specializing in commercial real estate. A resident of the Washington area since 1992, he has lived in Arlington since 2012. He serves on the Board of the Arlington Food Assistance Center (AFAC) and is a member of the Leadership Arlington Class of 2011.

Justin Oliver* is President and CEO of Oliver Properties, a real estate investment, development, and asset management company based in Virginia. He received his undergraduate degree from the College of William and Mary, an MBA from Tulane University, and is a member of the Leadership Arlington Class of 2016. He has been an Arlington resident since 2008 and remains an active volunteer with his children's schools and youth sports teams.

John Snyder* is Senior Counsel for Bechtel Global Corporation. A resident of Arlington since 1985, he is president of the Columbia Pike Revitalization Organization (CPRO) board, has held numerous community leadership positions, including President of the Douglas Park Civic Association, and has served on the Affiliate Boards of several AHC properties.

Scott Ritter is the Managing Director of Commercial Real Estate Lending for United Bank. A resident of Arlington since 1991, he is a member of the Northern Virginia Building Industry Association; Arlington Chamber of Commerce; Leadership Arlington, Class of 2001; Donaldson Run Civic Association; and St. Charles Borromeo Catholic Church.

Walter D. Webdale, President and CEO of AHC Inc., joined the organization in 1999. Prior to that, he served as the Fairfax County Director of Housing and Community Development for 25 years. Under Mr. Webdale's leadership, AHC has more than quadrupled the number of properties it has preserved or built - from 13 in 1999 to 53 properties today.

* Re-elected Board Members

 Returning Board Members

+ Retiring Board Members